

Prof. Huck and Prof. Pierson held lectures at Symbiosis Law School, Pune, India

Wolfenbüttel, 01.02.2016

According to a comprehensive work plan, stipulated from the Symbiosis Law School (SLS), Pune, India, <http://www.symlaw.ac.in/> for Prof. Huck and Prof. Pierson during 19.1. – 21.01.2016, both professors were integrated in the faculty life of SLS in Pune.

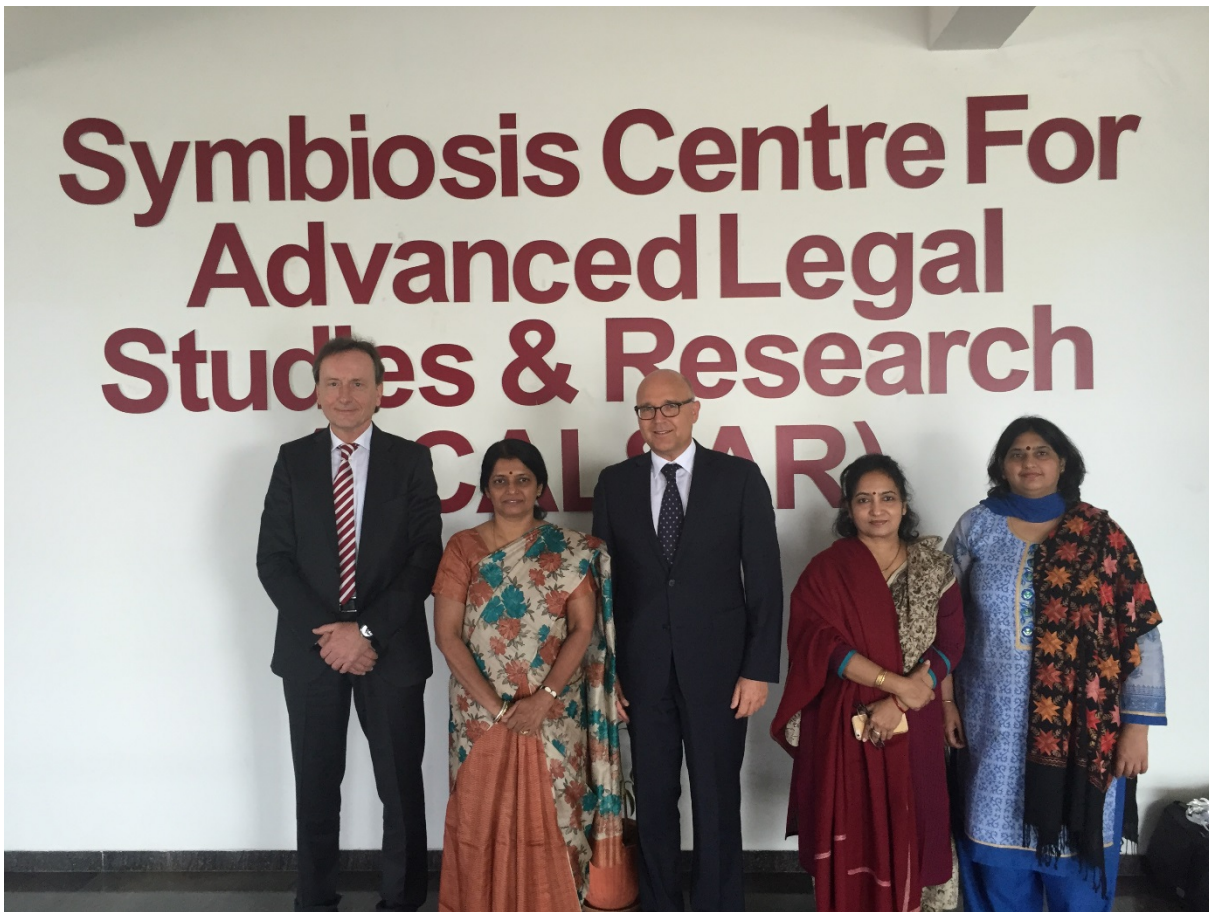

The highly reputed and highly ranked SLS, which has been for years among the 10 best-ranked law schools in India, is a cooperation partner of the BELS. In addition to the lectures, both professors offered consultations in their field of expertise to over twenty-five Master students, who visited both experts with scientific questions regarding their Master theses. Fruitful discussions were also conducted to develop and deepen the existing cooperation with the faculty management and with the international office of the Symbiosis International University (SIU).

Prof. Pierson delivered lectures about IP-Law and Competition law:

- Systematic Aspects of Intellectual Property Law, 19.01.2016
- The Interlinking of IP and Competition Law, 20.01.2016
- Patent Protection in the European Union - with special consideration to the Unitary Patent System, 20.01.2016

Prof. Huck held lectures about European and International Economic Law:

- Emerging issues in private international law: Impact of UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and human rights in private international law?, 19.01.2016
- Law and justice in a globalizing world – from constitutionalism to cosmopolitanism, 20.1.2016
- The long and winding road - European response to the migrant crisis, 20.1.2016
- European Union challenges and prospects in international economic law - spaghetti bowl and other dishes, 21.1.2016
- How and to what extent influence the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) the concept of international economic law, 21.1.2016

Prof. Dr. Pierson, Prof. Dr. Gurpur, Prof. Dr. Huck, Prof. Dr. Mohanty, Prof. Dr. Arya